

Annora E. Alfonso

Associate -

Assistant: Penny Menzer

312-589-1501 | pmenzer@cmvlaw.com

Annora E. Alfonso is an associate attorney at Cunningham, Meyer & Vedrine. She works in the firm's Chicago office and concentrates her practice on defending healthcare providers from an array of medical malpractice claims.

Education

Chicago-Kent College of Law, J.D.

Marquette University, B.S.

Annora is a graduate of Marquette University where she double majored in Political Science and Philosophy and served on the Executive Board for their Mock Trial Team. After graduating cum laude, she attended Chicago-Kent College of Law on a Dean's Full Tuition Merit Scholarship. While there, she gained valuable experience on their nationally ranked Trial Team, earning a CALI Award for Excellence in Trial Advocacy as well as Dean's List honors. She joined the firm as a law clerk in 2022 and stayed on as an attorney following her admission to the Illinois Bar.